Week#4 (26th Sunday in Ordinary Time)
Readings of September 27, 2015

Theme: We are open to God's will when we do not allow sin to separate us from the love of God and of one another.

Order: "Do not prevent him... who performs a mighty deed in my name." (Mk 9:39b)

Directions:

- Use your spiritual gifts to upbuild community.
- Cast off anything that causes you to sin.

Promise: "Because you belong to Christ ...you will surely not lose his reward." (Mk 9:41b)

Agenda:

1. Archbishop Lagdameo's visit (Sep 23) – We continue to encourage the community to attend the Sep 23rd Eucharistic Celebration - the next day (Thursday) is a work day. Lineup for the Mass has been finalized by Liturgy.
2. The sharers for the John 6 Crossing retreat on October 9-11 in Hope, NJ have been discerned, notified, and have accepted the call to serve.
3. Coffee Table Book
The community is now invited to place their orders for BLD's 30th Anniversary Coffee Table Book. Cost is $65 per book. Deadline for placing order is Nov 30. A copy of the book will be available at the BLD office for those who may wish to preview it. Orders may be placed with Way Gomez at waygomez@gmail.com. – or alternative way to contact T. Way.
4. Agenda for DLC/Pastoral hour – Financial report including dinner dance, cleanliness of venue, ministry transfers.

Note: DLC/Pastoral Hour was postponed due to the shutdown of DMP facilities.

5. Dec 11 change of venue for P & W and Dec 12 activity- Due to the Feast of our Lady of Guadalupe, another group requested that the church will be used for vigil starting at 7:00 PM on Friday, Dec 11. From our meeting with DMP, our Community P & W will be at the auditorium followed by the Christmas presentations. The Dec 12 Youth activity will be moved to the Connell Hall.
